

Education / Mediation / Participation | A workshop

Moderated by curators Agnieszka Kubicka-Dzieduszycka & Magdalena Kreis
WRO Art Center - Wroclaw, Poland

Friday September 4th, 2018

13:00 –14:30

The main theme of the workshop focuses on the transition that takes place in art education in the museum and the connection to the role of the audience.

Topics such as how to move from one-way hierarchical education to the transfer of multi-directional knowledge and how a department of education in an art institution is created in cooperation with an audience, will be brought to discussion.

A variety of examples will be presented during the workshop, as well as practical exercises related to the subject will be carried out.
